Gam 'yu jah!

If you listen to KWLP 100.9 FM "The Peach," the live and local station of the Hualapai Nation broadcasting from Peach Springs, Arizona, and worldwide at www.kwlpradio.com, you may have noticed you are hearing more of the Hualapai language and culture coming to you across the airwaves. We hope you have! This is due in great part to a grant provided to the Hualapai Tribe Radio Station Department by Cultural Survival in 2022.

In early 2022, Cultural Survival's Indigenous Community Media Fund awarded KWLP funding to produce bilingual content for the radio station, emphasizing that the project must involve and empower local Tribal community members and youth. The grant project provided stipends for participating Hualapai-speaking Elders and an Indigenous community member and youth assistants, as well as hosting an informational event and the purchase of related equipment and software.

The Hualapai Tribal Council promptly approved the receipt of the funding and implementation of the project by KWLP. "The Peach" held a kick-off event in April 2022 and promoted the event and project on the air. The project began in February 2022 and closed November 30, 2022. During the course of the project, 36 community members participated together with station staff, either in group sessions, individually, or both. Community language speakers numbered 34, which included 33 women and 1 man. Two community youth participated as interns: one woman and one man. Over the course of the project, youth interns were exposed to their language and culture and had the opportunity to learn audio production skills. The community participants came from throughout the region and were of Hualapai, Supai, Yavapai, Navajo, Paiute, Hopi, White Mountain Apache, and Hualapai descent.

Cultural luncheon with Elders.

KWLP's goal was to complete 12 bilingual content pieces. However, "The Peach" exceeded this goal by completing 25 bilingual radio programs. Many of these programs have multiple components, such that the number might be counted as 48 if each component were counted separately. This content was ultimately contributed by eight community participants. It was produced for on-air broadcast in part by the community youth interns and KWLP station staff.

The project faced some challenges, though none were new to efforts to revitalize and share language and culture on the radio in this, or other, similar communities. From the outset, many potential participants wanted to halt the project until all participants reached a consensus on what would be shared and how the language would be spoken. The reality is that the remaining language speakers come from different Tribe bands and families, have differing dialects, and pronounce some words or use phrases slightly differently. There was also concern expressed about “outsiders” or “young people” hearing the content and misusing or not appreciating and valuing it. The project also experienced delays and failure to complete content pieces due to participants and intern scheduling conflicts. These obstacles were anticipated.

What was unexpected was the open sharing and camaraderie that bloomed among several of the participants during the cultural conversation luncheons hosted by KWLP as part of the project. These luncheons were an afterthought in the project plan but clearly manifested in much of the empowerment experienced by some of the participants deriving from the project. They enjoyed rediscovering lost and forgotten words and phrases together, exploring the origins of their differing dialects and word pronunciations, and providing reassurance to many of the language speakers who previously lacked confidence in their abilities and memory.

Five of the local participants have continued to contribute bilingual content to KWLP after the close of the grant project. They have also expressed a desire to carry on in the next year. Some are hoping for compensation, while others are planning to volunteer. One of the project participants moved on to secure a contract to provide bilingual services for another department within the Tribe. An Elder from the nearby Supai Tribe contacted the station recently requesting that KWLP broadcast circle dance songs he provided. He also indicated he hopes to volunteer at the station to share language and stories, as his Tribe listens to KWLP, too.

All in all, the results have been positive for the participants, station, and community listeners. For those who listen to KWLP, you'll hear the project results presented in the following programming segments: advertisements; event promotions; Public Service Announcements; the Hualapai version of the Community Calendar; The La Paz Stories in April; Cultural Conversations; Hualapai Word and Phrase of the Day; and Read On Hualapai! Worldwide.

You can hear “The Peach” at www.kwlpradio.com. Thank you all for listening! Tha Bal' Qwal gwe ja jum, meh ev jum, mah, Hank 'yu! Thank you Cultural Survival for supporting KWLP to assist in revitalizing and encouraging participation in the Hualapai language, culture, and traditions. Hank 'yu!

Seeking One (1) New Board Member for the Hualapai Tribal Utility Authority (HTUA)

Submitted by: Kevin Davidson | Hualapai Planning Department

Seeking One New Board Member for the Hualapai Tribal Utility Authority (HTUA)

On September 24, 2014, the Hualapai Tribal Council adopted the Hualapai Tribal Utility Authority Governing Ordinance. This is a significant step toward self-determination in the realm of public utilities for the Hualapai Tribe.

Established as an institution of Tribal government, the five members of the Hualapai Tribal Utility Authority board are chosen by Council. As noted in Section 107.b.3, of the Ordinance, the HTUA Board is authorized to acquire, construct, operate, maintain, promote, and expand electric power service, and eventually water service, and sewage service at Grand Canyon West and on such other locations within the Hualapai Reservation and on other Tribal lands under the jurisdiction of the Hualapai Tribe as the Tribal Council may deem appropriate. The HTUA board is delegated full authority and responsibility for the management and operation of HTUA consistent with the Ordinance.

At this time, the Tribe is seeking one new candidate to apply for Board membership to maintain this important function of Tribal government.

- ◆ The position may be filled by a member of the Community who has sufficient education, experience, and sound judgment to learn basic utility business practices and procedures.
- ◆ The new board member will be appointed for a three-year term.
- ◆ No employee of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, employee of the HTUA or member of the Tribal Council shall be a member of the Board.

Please prepare a letter of interest offering your qualifications (resume) and general motivation to be a member of the Hualapai Tribal Utility Authority Board and what you hope to achieve while on the Board. Please bring or e-mail your letter of interest to the Tribal Office, 941 Hualapai Way, Peach Springs, Arizona, attention Christine Lee, by Friday, March 3, 2023, at 5:00 PM. Thank you for your thoughtful consideration of this offer and desire to enhance utility services on the Hualapai Reservation.

First Things First • Combating New Parent Loneliness with Social Connections

MONTHLY UPDATE

Combating new parent loneliness with social connections

Many new parents experience loneliness, and if you are feeling that, you're not alone.

Becoming a parent comes with lots of change. Changes to your schedule, your priorities, and your relationships are completely normal and natural parts of adjusting to life as a new parent. But at times, this new role can feel isolating. Even if you do receive outpourings of support from family and friends when your baby arrives, accepting invitations to attend events or spend time with friends feels more complicated when you consider whether you can take your child with you.

Many new parents experience loneliness, and if you are feeling that, you're not alone. Social connections can help. Research shows that having social connections is one of 5 elements, called protective factors, that can help parents and families manage stress. Research studies demonstrate that social connections and the support that comes from them can lead to positive mood, satisfaction and well-being in parents. It's even correlated with lower levels of parental anger, anxiety and depression, according to the Center for the Study of Social Policy.

Here are a few ways FTF's Family Support experts say you can find social connections as a new parent.

Embrace video calls: Video and FaceTime calls are a great way to check in with your family and friends. You may have times where you can't or don't feel like leaving the house when you're taking care of your new baby. Video calls can help you stay connected and share parts of your new experience as a parent with people who love and care about you.

Seek spaces to meet other new parents: Connecting with other new parents helps combat loneliness, too. Having the shared experience of being new parents gives you lots to talk about and helps you get support from other people who understand what you're experiencing and going through.

By looking in some new (and some familiar places), you can start to make the social connections you need to feel loved and supported as a new parent and family. Other great places to meet new parents are at local parenting groups or churches, in libraries, at local "Mommy and Me" or "Daddy and Me" groups, and through online platforms like Facebook groups. It's also important to remember that you may have some already existing relationships to continue nurturing. Your friends may not be experiencing the same things as you at the exact same time, but you may find that they want to continue loving and supporting you as your life changes. So don't count out old friends out.

From the Family of Samuel Bender, Sr.

Submitted by: Ginger Kathadhe | Hualapai Tribal Member

I would like to take this time to send out a very BIG THANK YOU to the Hualapai Tribe for providing the funeral assistance for tribal members. It really helped us a lot with the funeral for my father, Samuel Bender, Sr. It was much appreciated. Also, THANK YOU to Public Works employees, Frank Mapatis, Edgar Alvarez, Jr. and Keenan Littlewhiteman for digging up the grave and coming out on their day off (Saturday) to help in laying my father to rest. THANK YOU to Danielle Bravo for her assistance in printing up the flyers and the memory cards for my father. They were very beautiful. You did a nice job on them. THANK YOU to Chief Pankow, Hualapai Nation Police and Animal Control (Valen Quasula) for escorting my father's last ride home, for making sure that the funeral was safe to attend and for being there for my father. THANK YOU to those who donated food and drinks for the funeral. THANK YOU to the Bender family for coming together during this time to help with the funeral and just being there for us. THANK YOU to the friends of my father and to those who knew him for coming to his funeral to pay your last respects. I know that there were some that wanted to go but due to some statements that were made, you all decided not to go for your safety. My father's funeral turned out good and I really appreciate everyone who helped in one way or another. Hankyu!!

Thank You

Torivio M. Bravo Obituary

Submitted by: From the Bravo Family

Early Saturday morning, January 14, 2023, Torivio Mario Bravo, loving father, peacefully passed away at 62 years old in Peach Springs, Az.

Mario was born on November 14, 1960, in Williams, AZ. to Philip and Lena Bravo Sr.

Mario attended Kingman High School and Bacone Jr. College in Oklahoma, alongside his sister Bonnie. It was at this time that he met Leonora, they were married in 1981 and would go on to have 4 children, Cody, Mavis, Natalie & Ryan. Sadly, he lost his son Cody at an early age which he never fully accepted.

In his early years he was a cattle rancher, he helped work his mom's cattle and broke horses. His favorite work horse which he broke was a wild mustang named Comanche. He had numerous jobs including wildland fire fighting, boatman with the Hualapai River Runners, & vending at Grand Canyon West. He also owned his own river running business.

His passion was the joy of hunting, trapping, being outdoors and the thrill of a successful hunt. He was an avid hunting guide & outfitter. He belonged to the Bravo Guides and Outfitters alongside his brothers. They guided numerous important clients from around the country resulting in the recognition in the Boone & Crockett Club record book, which is quite an honor. He also enjoyed camping, fishing, scouting, horn hunting, sitting by the fire, laughing, and joking with everyone. He also coached little league baseball with Morris Sampson resulting with a champion team.

Mario was a humble man with a big heart. He always taught us to stand tall, be proud, and supported us all throughout our accomplishments and difficulties of our lives. He loved his children, grandchildren, and family with all his heart. He had a great sense of humor, and we will never forget his sarcasm, natural wit, memorable laugh & adventurous spirit!

Mario was preceded in death by his son Cody, his father, Philip Sr, his mother, Lena & former spouse Lorraine. Mario is survived by his former spouse Leonora and their children: Mavis, Natalie, and Ryan; his brothers; Philip Jr. & Clay; his sisters, Anita & Bonnie, grandchildren: Samuel, Romeo, Landyn, Julian, Kingston, Cassidy, also former spouses Ava, Denise and several cousins, nephews, nieces, and many relatives.

A traditional wake was held on Friday January 20, 2023, at the family home in Peach Springs Az. At a later date, his ashes will be scattered at his favorite hunting spot beside his son and parents.

Thanks to the Hualapai Tribe, all family, friends, colleagues, and those who were a valuable part of his life.

This month February: (Muway Buk H'la) Warm days!

This month we are all in the "LOVE" spirit! So do so! Learn to love yourself and family, friends and people around you. Just like JESUS did when he roamed around on Earth, preaching the good news about life and He had compassion for all people. No matter how they were! He is still the same. Pray for each other's. Amen!

Choose to be kind. Many are facing difficult times, filled with uncertainty and sadness! If you add JOY to someone's life, do it because what you give, you can receive! It's the circle of life!

God always has something for you. A key for every problem. A light for every shadow. A relief for every sorrow and a plan for every tomorrow. Amen!

God is awesome!

I'd like to thank everyone for their support through these first few months of my reign.

Delicia Walema Memorial Youth Softball Camp • Thank You

HUALAPAI HEALTH-EDUCATION AND WELLNESS BEHAVIORAL HEALTH PROGRAM

February 11, 2023

On behalf of the Walema and Vaughn families, I would like to thank everyone who donated and volunteered their time to host the 2023 Delicia Walema Memorial Youth Softball Camp on February 11, 2023.

Our camp hosted 38 kids at Centennial Fields in Kingman, Arizona. Without the volunteers and sponsors, this event would not have been possible. So Han'kyu for your hard work and willingness to give back to the youth!

Give these people a shout out the next time you see them or shop at their business. Because of their generosity we had a fun day of softball for the kids!

Here is the list of the sponsors, volunteers and coaches who made this camp a success:

VOLUNTEERS/COACHES:

1. Denise Walema & Joey Ng
2. Amelia Beecher

All the kids did great at camp and the coaches gave a few special awards to kids who excelled at camp. I wish we could have given more, but for a first time softball camp in over 10 years the kids all walked away with some fun incentives, prizes and t-shirts.

We had coaches on 3 softball fields working with them all day on playing infield, playing the outfield and hitting. Special awards at camp are as follows:

MVP's

1. Dangeli Walema
2. Cyann Honga
3. Cali Booth

Most Improved Players

1. Anna Sue Honga
2. Marcal Rocha
3. Mikayla Elias

Fastest Kids

1. Harmony Webster
2. Dangeli Walema
3. Nylece Quasula
4. Antonique Cogburn

Again, this camp would not have been possible without all the support we received from our friends & family. When we needed help with serving lunch, parents sitting nearby did not hesitate to pitch in to make hamburger patties, clean up or hand out food.

It is this type of community effort that makes these events special because it shows how giving our community is when it comes to our kids!

We are looking forward to next year. Stay tuned for more details.

Han'kyu!
